

Stina Resources Ltd. announced that has entered into an amending agreement with the Austrian liquidator with respect to the purchase of the assets of Austrian based Gildemeister Energy Storage GMBH out of insolvency.. Prior to its insolvency, Gildemeister was a world-leader in development of vanadium-redox flow batteries since 2000. After extensive ...

Cellcube is the continuation of the line of energy storage systems dubbed VFB ("vanadium flow battery") and produced originally by Gildemeister Energy Storage. The German company's VFB assets were acquired by Canada's Stina Resources Group and the company changed its name to Cellcube Energy Storage Systems.

Another company involved in vanadium is Australian Vanadium (AVL) that in collaboration with Gildemeister Energy Storage will be selling a product named the CellCube. It is a vanadium redox flow battery. AVL managing director, Vince Algar, told CleanTechnica, "The future of vanadium demand is strongly tied to the global need for large-scale ...
