

Does Zambia have a good solar system?

Zambia benefits from excellent solar resources, with a specific production output between 1,600 and 1,800 kWh/kWp per year. The regions with the best re-sources are the south-west part of the country as well as the region around Lake Bangweulu, east of Mansa.

Is Zambia a copper producer?

Zambia is the second largest producer of copper in Africa and its economy is heavily dependent on copper mining (at least 70% of total exports). Efforts to diversify economic activity or invest revenues from mining to other sectors of the economy have been limited.

Does Zambia need hydropower?

In recent years, Zambia has been able to improve its electricity supply but remains largely dependent on hydropower. This dependency represents a risk to the security of supply, as evidenced by the return of scheduled load shedding at the end of 2022 until February 2023, due to low water levels on the Zambezi River.

Can a company have a foreign shareholding in Zambia?

According to Companies Act No. 10 of 2017, at least half of the company's directors need to be resident in Zambia but they need not be Zambian nationals. There are generally no restrictions on foreign shareholding for companies in Zambia.
